Notes: Questioned if an overseas ballot was remade correctly – it was but not marked correctly under “For Official Use Only” section. Ballot was counted. Was unable to match number of ballots with voter numbers issued. In reviewing EL-104 – their machine count was off by 1 high all day. Two ballots had only one set initials. Two absentee envelopes were not initialed for “photo ID requirement” area. One ballot had two sets of initials under “Absentee Ballot” instead of “Ballot Issued” section. In both poll books, voter on page 11 line 8 was not assigned a number – recount workers add voter number 436 with their initials & today’s date.

Notes: Questioned whether in-person absentee ballots should be counted if clerk's address was not included on certificate envelope. Because it was an error on the clerk's part & ballots were counted on Election Day Board of Canvass members agreed to count the ballots. All but two of the absentee envelopes were missing election information (no date, county or town listed). None of the absentee envelopes had initials in the "photo ID exempt" area. There in-person absentees didn't include the clerk's address as witness. One absentee envelope only showed the last name of the voter.

Notes: Found only one original EL-104 (Inspector's Statement) – the second one was a copy of the first one. One absentee ballot found in the certificate envelope and uncounted on Election Day. EL-104 had an incident listed as a remade absentee ballot by voter that occurred at the polling place. Did a draw down because a second ballot should not have been issued to an absentee voter on Election Day. Back of ballot mentioned it as an over vote and Board of Canvass members were unable to see an over vote on the entire ballot. Recount workers were unable to locate the reissued ballot so there was a draw down. Draw down resulted in one less vote for Clinton. Board of Canvass reviewed a ballot where the voter marked the right side of the candidate name instead of the oval on the left side of name. One vote added to Clinton and one vote less in under vote. Absentee ballot that was not counted on Election Day was counted resulting in one vote for Trump.
